

GLADES BANKS SHOW 1% INCREASE

Announced Plans For Ramie Plant Pleases Glades

The Glades Is The Center Of Activity In Ramie In Hemisphere

There are no standards for grading ramie fiber, because of the many methods of decorticating and degumming prevalent throughout the world which give a different quality to each small batch. With the advent of mechanical and/or chemical processes, such as is announced by Miami interests during the past few days, and such as are being practiced in the Glades at the present time, produce a fiber of consistent quality. When these processes are perfected, doubtless the USDA working with Glades growers and processors, will establish a standard of grades which will be accepted throughout the world.

There are at present about 2400 acres of ramie grown in the Glades, the largest operation being by Newport and U. S. Sugar east of Canal Point where 1100 acres are grown for their own processing. A recent announcement of a quarter million dollar installation of degumming machinery at Clewiston marks an historical step for that organization.

A year or so ago textile manufacturers of Switzerland, who have used "China Grass" for scores of years, purchased from Newport more than a 100 tons of ramie. They returned this year and placed with Newport an order for 800,000 pounds of which 375,000 pounds are being shipped from the present crop, the balance to be shipped from the crop just coming in.

The Hillsboro Plantations are rearing 500 acres for harvest and processing of ramie. The Hillsboro Plantations are rearing 500 acres for harvest and processing of ramie. The Hillsboro Plantations are rearing 500 acres for harvest and processing of ramie.

Kruse Brothers have 325 acres of ramie 3 years old and ready for harvest. A portion of the ramie has been harvested and stored before maturity for ramie meal.

Unquestionably many thousands of acres of ramie will be grown in the Glades by farmers who will sell to the processors and cooperatives are foreseeable for the near future.

Mr. Edwards' announcement of the establishment of a plant at Belle Glade is welcomed with interest and he will find a ready source of supply by local farmers as his operation develops.

While the Glades believes in the future of ramie, it declines any stock or promotion plans not based on knowledge and experience, for there is no lack of possibilities of successful agricultural effort in the Glades but there are no "promotional" sales up the forward stride.

Hospital Fund Released

The releasing of $500,000 from the Florida State Hospital trust fund to the State Tuberculosis Hospital at South Florida will be expected to be a big boost for the new institution. It is a $2,240,000 of which the Federal Government contributes $1,000,000 and will have a capacity for 400 patients.

Other state tuberculosis hospitals, especially those at Orlando and Winter Park, are unable to care for patients that are in dire need of care and treatment.

When the Landis Hospital is ready for patients, south Florida patients will be assigned there.

The Board of County Commissioners is its fourth annual budget for 1948-49 will set aside the sum of $25,000 for Veterans' Hospital construction and $100,000 for the proposed new county jail and funds to provide a new home for colored children.

City Commission Receives Report Of Planning Board

Resigns—Zone Changes Recommended

Several months ago the City Commission passed legislation setting up a new City Planning Board for the purpose of handling city building zones, and it has been diligent in its work. On Wednesday night, through Building Inspector Willis, it presented its first recommendation, as well as later discussion before a public mass meeting.

These recommendations, based on the present zoning map of the city, both as to business and residential areas, were studied for more than an hour by the Commission and with serious objections were approved and passed back to the Board, to be placed in legal ordinance form for adoption.

Changes from zone classification were made for areas in several locations in colored town, especially in the west part of the city. In one section in the Legion hall is located on north-west Fifth street and in the high school and packing house section. None of a radical nature of overturn, but will permit of more business building.

Fire Chief L. E. Williams presented needs of the fire department and the extension of water mains, and the securing of an address for the fire department. The old No. 1 pump is no longer available for fire service. Most of these recommendations have already been treated by the City Commission.

Mr. J. F. Browne, who has been connected with the City Library for the past fifteen years and under city employment for the past several years, owing to advanced age, presented his resignation to effective July 31. The Commission accepted the resignation with regret and the Mayor presented a letter of commendation for her long and successful service.

Mr. Betty Harris, a trainee in the city, presented an application for the library position and was hired at a salary of $1150 a month.

Two city employees in the police and garbage departments were each granted a salary increase of $25 a month, so that they will be $1,100 and $1,050 respectively. Mr. Harris was employed as a water meter reader in the water department.

Distributing Of Produce Studied At University

Gainesville, July 15.—The central problem of our economic life has shifted from knowing how to produce more and more to finding out how we can distribute what we are now able to produce.

"The future prosperity of the nation," continues Frank Goodwin, associate professor of economics at the University of Florida in the May issue of "Economic Leaflets," "depends fully as much on a sound understanding of our distributive problems as upon additional plant capacity."

According to Goodwin in his article, entitled "Marketing—A Problem and a Hope," the nation's marketing machinery is in a state of confusion. It is a state of confusion. It is a state of confusion. It is a state of confusion.

For these that whittled in kind of a "fair treatment" of the old bench, the new bench is a source of shame, until white, not rain and combine with infest and bring about a shining death.

Recently Mike built a brand new bench, longer and higher than the old one, and of native Florida cypress.

Customers of the bench, and not particularly of the drug store, are a source of shame, until white, not rain and combine with infest and bring about a shining death.

Many toddlers these days are holding to parents hands who are holding to the bench for support. If the old bench could talk, it would say to the bench for support.

FARMERS

PROTECT YOURSELVES

In your semi-activity period on the farms, take time to note down and enumerate your fall supply needs.

To file your orders with us early is of prime importance to guarantee that we will have them when required as well as being protected in quality and advanced prices. A shortage in some seed supplies is now apparent. Filed orders will receive precedent.
